

A Meeting of Stawell's Church Committee.

Held at Jeanette and Ian's house on 22nd July 2019.

Present: Rachel – In the chair. Jeanette, Anna, Jean, Janet, Ralph, Richard and Sally.

Apologies. Tina and Ruth. It is not certain whether Ann Griffin is a committee member. Rachel to speak.

Open Gardens and Hog Roast Feedback.

Open Gardens.

Sally gave us her views on the weekend. Jeanette has her comprehensive report but the main points were.

This event involves a lot of people.

Next Time. We must plan, advertise and make decisions earlier. We need to involve children.

The first planning meeting should take place a year ahead in June 2020.

The profit was £1389.45.

Hog Roast.

Profit was £597 including raffle.

Finance.

Current Account £8295.29. CCLA Account. £14747.94.

Warden's Report.

The advert for the new vicar is on the website. There is an interested party who is to be interviewed and the post will not be advertised in the Church Times yet. This might save us £1000.

Interview will be held on 5th September. Panel will be Archdeacon and Deacon and one representative from each PCC to include one from Stawell and Moorlinch. It was agreed that Rachel should be our representative.

Nature Church Event.

This will be on 31st August and is being organized by Rachel, Janet and Jeanette. Note that a bug hotel is already in situ under the Yew in the churchyard. Architects: Bill and Frank.

Limewash. Rachel to seek prior advice from the architect re timing and composition of wash.

The Quinquennial Report is due this November.

Rachel is stepping down as Warden in May 2020 and will share her knowledge gained doing the job and the courses attended with potential candidates.

Thank You letters have been sent to Vera Bailey's family, the Duckett family for donations and to Margaret and Sally for their help with open gardens.

Rachel has applied for a faculty for the movement of the picture in the church.

Any Other Business.

Anna has completed paperwork for hall bookings for harvest supper on 12 October and Christmas Quiz on 30 November .

Sam on the hill is involved with providing stationery for a village in Africa. Janet is to get more details to see if we can help.

Date of Next Meeting. 16th September at Anna and Ralph's.
